

Geographic Distribution

Top States Where Romanian-Americans Live

Source: US Census Bureau, 1990

- The Romanian-American population is estimated at approximately one million people, although only half were counted in the 1990 Census.
- The three major areas of concentration are New York, California, and the Midwest.
- The top four cities of residence are New York City, Los Angeles, Chicago, and Detroit.

source: <http://www.roembus.org/>